The Cast

Tim Garcia (Tom) - Tim is honored to help revive Tennessee Williams' The Glass Menagerie. His notable Bay Area credits include Dracula at Douglas Morrison Theatre, The Normal Heart at Theatre Rhinoceros, The Laramie Project & Twisted Hitchcock at Left Coast Theatre Company, Good. Better. Best. Bested. & How The World Began (Principal Actor in a Play nomination by SF Bay Area Theatre Critics' Circle) at The Custom Made Theatre Company, The Speakeasy at Boxcar Theatre, and Angels In America: Millennium Approaches at Foothill Conservatory. He has also performed at Brava Theatre Center, Z Below, and Bay Area Playwrights Festival. He studied Acting at UCSC and SJSU, where he graduated with a B.A. in Theatre.

Gwendolyne Wagner (Amanda) - Gwendolyne is delighted to be making her SCP debut in this American classic with such an amazing cast and creative team. Favorite roles in the Bay Area have included Lady Bird Johnson (All The Way, Palo Alto Players), Sarah/ Ensemble (Spending the End of the World on OK Cupid, Pear Theatre), Emma/ Gimmitch (It Can't Happen Here, Foothill Theatre), McNair (1776, South Bay Musical Theatre), Duchess Stephanie (Death Takes a Holiday, Tabard Theatre), and Toad (A Year with Frog and Toad Kids, Tabard Theatre Youth—Mentor Production). Gwendolyne received her BFA in Acting from USIU in San Diego. Thanks to Christopher for your love and support!

Wolfie Lewandowski (Laura) - Wolfie Lewandowski is very excited to be taking part in this production of The Glass Menagerie and to share the role of Laura Wingfield with the world. Other roles they've played include Sally Bowles in Cabaret, Amelia Tilford in The Children's Hour, and Adelaide in Gyps and Dolls. They hope you enjoy this production, and all of the hard work of the cast and crew.

Jake Weissman (Jim) - Jake studied at the Foothill Theatre Conservatory and recently graduated from UC Santa Barbara with a BA in Theatre and Community. Some of his favorite roles from the past are Bottom in A Midsummer Night's Dream, and Kerry Davis in First Person Shooter. This is his first role in a non-educational production, and he is super excited to start his professional career with The Glass Menagerie.

Arcadia Conrad (Director) - Arcadia is so thrilled to be directing The Glass Menagerie at Santa Clara Players. As Theatre Program Director of Cupertino Actors Theatre at Cupertino High School, she has directed over 30 plays and musicals, most recently Tracey Young's A Wrinkle In Time. Her work as a performer and writer has been recently featured in Play on Words San Jose and City Lights Theatre Company, and her new play Script Doctor will be read at Dragon Theatre's Monday Night Playspace in June. Thanks to George for this opportunity, Tyler, I gotchu, and love to my husband John and daughter Luna Luna Conrad (Costumer) - Luna is a senior in the Fremont Union High School District's Community Learning Program. She has previously designed over 8 shows, most recently A Wrinkle In Time at Cupertino High School, works for Starting Arts as a wardrobe assistant, was a dresser on last summer's Sound of Music for Foothill College, and has won numerous awards for her work at both the Lenaea and Ohlone High School Theatre Festivals. She is also a vocal music performer and songwriter, as well as numerous other artistic pursuits. She'd like to thank the academy, but actually her Mom.

Tyler Pardini (Assistant Director) - Tyler is thrilled to be working with Arcadia on yet another production. As a Santa Clara native, Tyler is honored to be working for Santa Clara Players. Previous Directing Credits include: When the Rain Stops Falling with CAT, Peter and the Starcatcher (Asst. to Walter Mayes) with SBMT and Macbeth (with Arcadia Conrad) with CAT. Thank you to new friends, old friends and family. Enjoy the show!
